It took a long time for Chamellia to source our premium Organic tea.

After visiting nearly 100 estates around the world - and consuming more cuppas than we care to count - we uncovered a gem in Ruhuna, Sri Lanka's southwestern tea growing region. It's our idea of heaven: a verdant rainforest lush with tea shrubs, bubbling streams and plant life, courtesy of nearby Dellawa Forest Reserve. Chamellia is involved every step of the way, from withering the tea leaves to oxidation and drying. We also share the same values as our friends in Sri Lanka, keeping everything organic, each local employee smiling, and the environment as Mother Nature intended.
